Select to Create an Account

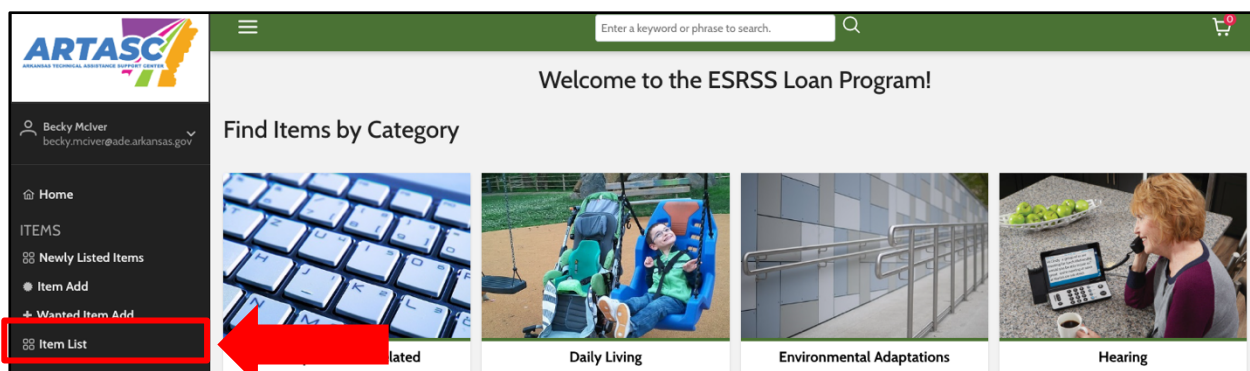

If you already have an account, log in with your email address and password.

If you don't have an account, you will need to create one before you can access the loan program.

After creating your account, a confirmation message will appear on your screen. Check your email inbox for an activation message and follow the instructions to complete your account activation. Once activated, return to <https://artasc-at4all.org> and log in.

You will then have access to the AT4ALL Loan Program, where you can browse and request items from our loan inventory. From the menu on the left side of the screen, select Item List to begin browsing available equipment.

In Search Results, click on the All Programs dropdown to view the available programs and select the correct program (e.g., ESRSS).
